anne robinson's mother was a cross between Robert Maxwell and Mother Teresa when Anne became a young reporter in Fleet Street her mother a wealthy market trader bought her a mink coat and told her to have a facial once a month but Anne Robinson's early success almost ended in her destruction a doomed marriage was followed by a secret custody battle for her two year old daughter Emma is it true her husband's barrister demanded in court you once said you'd rather cover the Vietnam War than vacuum the sitting room a shocking funny poignant and honest account of three generations of women Anne's formidable mother Anne and her daughter Emma Memoirs of an Unfit Mother tells of Anne's downfall the shame of the years after the custody battle and her subsequent alcoholism and the triumph of returning to take a second go at life and making it work this compelling and unique collection of critical and creative work assesses for the first time cultural literary legal and historical representations and narratives about mothers who kill and filicide the idea of a mother killing her child to many presents the greatest taboo and the most disturbing and distressing aspect of maternal experience in toni morrison s 1987 novel beloved escaped slave mother sethe addresses her daughter beloved whom she murdered out of desperation in order to avoid her returning to a life of slavery and sexual abuse sethe reflects i ll explain to her even though i don t have to why i did it how if i hadn t killed her she would have died and that is something i could not bear to happen to her when i explain it she ll understand this book goes beyond morrison s widely known literary portrayal in order to investigate a range of other less known but no less challenging examinations of maternal filicide have mothers who kill inevitably been portrayed as monsters in cultural representations or are there certain contexts that may urge us to reevaluate maternal behavior and how might we counter the misogynist narratives surrounding maternal filicide which have governed literary and historical accounts and affected legal discourses this wide ranging and innovative volume examines the complex issues of infanticide and mothers who kill from a broad interdisciplinary perspective in order to counter the misogynist cultural narratives that underpin prevailing stereotypes of mothers the book includes creative work essays on crime fiction literature from across a range of historical periods multicultural and global south perspectives legal and historical accounts and more making an invaluable contribution to motherhood studies and gender criticism this book offers a rich insight into current and cutting edge research into this most troubling area of maternal representation bad mother rule 1 never ever do what i did for seventeen year old charlotte cooper it s too late despite her best efforts to finish school tune out her angry slightly hysterical mother and cope with her loving but dotty grandmother she is unexpectedly now that s an understatement pregnant and don t even mention the jerk who knocked her up charlotte s mother karen is trying to convince herself that there are worse things than becoming a grandmother at thirty three for instance there s wanting to kill charlotte for the mess she s made of her life between struggling to pay the bills and halfheartedly filling out questionnaires on internet dating sites karen uncovers a scandalous family secret involving her own birth and then falls back into bed with her sexy ex husband so much for perfect timing in the meantime karen s mother nan is having a wee bit of trouble with names sometimes her own but that doesn t keep her from retaining a few things she d rather forget of course nan knows that everything will work out fine for charlotte and the baby these things usually do now if only she could put the pieces of her own fragmented memory together she might have an interesting tale or two to share in this wickedly funny disarmingly moving novel three generations of mothers learn that it s the simplest mistakes that can change your life forever with wit and wisdom kate long proves that there are as many kinds of mothers as there are daughters but the love that binds them all is what truly matters

i want to be in the company of her frank intelligence forever nigella lawson in our mothers day there were good mothers indifferent mothers and occasionally great mothers today we have only bad mothers if you work you re neglectful if you stay home you re smothering if you discipline you re buying them a spot on the shrink s couch if you let them run wild they will be into drugs by seventh grade is it any wonder so many women refer to themselves at one time or another as a bad mother writing with remarkable candor and dispensing much hilarious and helpful advice along the way is breast best what should you do when your daughter dresses up as a ho for halloween ayelet waldman says it s time for women to get over it and get on with it in this wry unflinchingly honest and always insightful memoir on modern motherhood while the image or construct of the good mother has been the focus of many research projects the bad mother as a discursive construct and also mothers who do bad things as complicated agentic social actors have been quite neglected despite the prevalence of the image of the bad mother across late modern societies the few researchers who address this powerful social image point out that bad mothers are culturally identified by what they do yet they are also socially recognized by who they are mothers become potentially bad when they behave or express opinions that diverge from or challenge social or gender norms or when they deviate from mainstream white middle class heterosexual nondisabled normativity when suspected of being bad mothers women are surveilled and may be disciplined punished or otherwise excluded by various official agents i e legal medical and welfare institutions as well as by their relatives friends and communities too often women are judged and punished without clear evidence that they are neglecting or abusing their children frequently they are blamed for the marginal sociocultural context in which they are mothering this anthology presents empirical theoretical and creative works that address the construct of the bad mother and the lived realities of mothers labeled as bad throughout the volume the editors consider voices and acts of resistance to bad mother constructions demonstrating that mothers across time and across domains have individually and collectively taken a stand against this destructive label
